The General Site Plan illustrates the layout of the Paspol Mixed High School. The school's boundary is defined by a pink line, enclosing several buildings: an Existing School, two Existing mud latrines, an Existing administration building, and the District education department. A Proposed stone boundary wall, 509m long, is shown as a dashed line. The school is situated near a River, with a Mountain to the north. Numerous Houses are scattered around the school area. The plan also shows a cluster of Houses to the south of the river. A north arrow is located in the top right corner.
