- Positive inspection certificate (to be issued by Concern Authority/IFRC)
- Any other document as required in the relevant purchase order.

Distribution of documents will be confirmed in Purchase Order.

29. MARKING:

According to the commercial marking.

30. BID EVALUATION:

The bids shall be evaluated based on the submitted offers as well as supplier registration form and supporting documents. The evaluation will involve consideration of several factors such as the following, but not limited to;

- Legal documents
- Financial standing
- Core business
- Track record
- Company capacity
- Ability to respond quickly to needs
- Timely delivery
- Compliance with the required IFRC specifications and certifications.
- Unit cost
- Delivery capacity
- Submission of required documentation.

31. PERTINENT INFORMATION:

IFRC is not bound to select any of the company submitting bids and does not bind itself in any way to select the firm offering the lowest price. The contract will be awarded to the bid considered most responsive to the needs, as well as conforming to IFRC's general principles, including economy and efficiency and best value for money.

32. QUALITY ASSURANCE:

Prior to and /or after signing the Purchase order, a supplier/factory/showroom evaluation may be done to determine that the factory meets acceptable standards. This may include but not limited to; standards such as social compliance in accordance with SA8000, technical competence and quality assurance according to Afghanistan Government. All products, parts, functions, oxygen generations as per specifications and requirements may be subject to inspection and testing by the buyer, user or its designated representatives, to the extent practicable at all times and places, prior to final acceptance by the Buyer. Such testing shall be done in accordance with SAQL (standard Acceptable quality limit) and penalties plan. Annex 5.

The products should conform international standards and or standard compliance by Afghanistan Government.

Acceptability of a lot shall be determined by the use of sampling plan/s as above. The buyer shall have a reasonable time (not more than 30 days from receipt of goods) after delivery, installation, and commissioning of the products at the final destination to inspect, accept or refuse acceptance of them as not conforming to the terms and conditions stipulated in the final Purchase Order.

Payment by the buyer does not imply acceptance of products nor of any related work or services provided pursuant to this agreement. Failure to inspect and accept products shall neither relieve the seller from responsibility for non-conforming goods nor impose liabilities on the buyer, therefore.

IFRC strives to deliver quality goods to its beneficiaries and constitutes the dignity, health, and safety of the beneficiaries at its topmost priority. As a rule, goods not compliant to the required specifications shall be straight away rejected. Therefore, to ensure that right goods are delivered by the supplier a penalty clause shall be stipulated in the Purchase Order to cover the concerns related to delivery of non-compliant goods.

In case of procurement funded by specific donors, the donor, if required, shall be able to conduct inspection of consignment or test at seller's premises. All inspection and tests on the premises of the seller shall be performed in such a manner as not to unduly delay or disrupt the ordinary business activities of the seller.

Kindly include your quality assurance policies if available explaining how you will maintain quality of offered products.

33. NON-CONFORMING ITEMS:

Once items have been received, installed commissioned and fully functional, IFRC reserves the right to not accept, if any item or particulars are found to be non-conforming during inspection process. All costs associated with visual or laboratory inspections which are found to be non-compliant will be borne by the supplier including the associated penalties as a result of the non-compliant products.

If any inspection or test is made on the premises of the seller, the seller shall provide all reasonable facilities and assistance for the safety and convenience of the inspectors in the performance of their duties. All inspection and/or tests on the premises of the shelter shall be performed in such a manner as not to unduly delay or disrupt the ordinary business activities of the seller.

34. PENALTY FOR NON-COMPLIANCE:

In order to determine financial penalties, the buyer shall classify defects as Critical, Major or Minor and all discrepancies found shall be evaluated for such classification as below:

- (a) Critical defects: any defects which may harm a user or make it impossible to use the product properly is considered to be critical. No critical defect can be accepted.
- (b) Major defects: Any defect which makes the usage of the product less efficient than expected is considered to be major, Major defects may be accepted.
- (c) Minor defects: any discrepancies which do not have any influence on the performance of the product are considered to be minor. Minor defects are accepted.

Non-conformity may be penalized as below.

Deduction of 4% from the total contract amount for minor defects. Supplier is notified to improve and demonstrate quality improvement measures taken.

Deduction of 12% of the total contract amount for major defects. Supplier is warned regarding suspension from the IFRC supplier database in case of re-occurrence of non-conformity in subsequent orders.

Deduction of 18% of the total contract amount for critical defects. Supplier is suspended from the IFRC supplier's database until supplier has demonstrated proof that quality improvement measures have been implemented.

35. CODE OF CONDUCT CLAUSE:

Principles of Conduct Clause: Suppliers seeking to work with the IFRC shall respect the following principles:

1. Business Ethics: Supplier is expected to maintain the highest degree of business ethics when working with the IFRC.
2. Transparency of information provision: Supplier shall not be involved in any fraudulent activities, misrepresent information or facts for the purpose of influencing the selection and contract awarding process in its favour.
3. Fair competition: Supplier shall not be involved in any corrupt, collusive or coercive practices.
4. Officials not to benefit: The Supplier represents and warrants that no official of the IFRC has been, or shall be, admitted by the Supplier to any direct or indirect benefit arising from this Request for Quotation, Purchase Order / Contract or the award thereof. The Supplier agrees that breach of this provision is a breach of an essential term of this Purchase Order/Contract.

If at any time during the registration or procurement process the IFRC determines that the supplier is in violation of the above-mentioned principles, that supplier's request for registration or bid may be rejected as ineligible. All costs in relation to the cancellation of contracts shall be borne by the supplier.

36. Integrity Line:

Report any alleged misconduct or integrity incident, such as corruption, fraud, sexual exploitation and abuse, harassment, unethical behaviour, child abuse, security incident, information security or staff health incidents - online on <https://ifrc.integrityline.org>, send an email to speakup@ifrc.integrityline.org, or call (Phone List).
