2) Introduction to Organization

Women & Youth Future Assist Organization (WYFAO) is a nonprofit, non-governmental, and apolitical organization that assists those in need by participating mostly in humanitarian and development initiatives. A group of young Afghan professionals with a strong desire to improve and shape lives in Afghanistan formed WYFAO back in 2016. WYFAO was founded in order to play a significant role in addressing the actual needs of the poor, give all Afghans the ability to speak up for their rights, and create an atmosphere that is supportive of their growth and prosperity. WYFAO is a legitimate organization that has been given the Ministry of Economy's registration number 3931. In addition to the Ministry of Economy, it is registered with the Ministries of Education, Information and Culture, and Public Health as well as the UNPP (United Nations Partners Portal), UNGM, UNOCHA, GHC along with other national and international consortiums and clusters like Health, Education and Nutrition. We are also members of ACBAR, attend their events and coordinate with other national and international NGOs frequently.
